God's Warriors

"As the days were dragged into the endless moon, the long letters confessing love and admiration were shrunk to the graffiti on the back of the postcard from PX, after which they all stopped together.

Shiki never lost the belief that her young husband was fine, and continued to serve his full emperor ... long after (actually a few years) she said he was at a small crossroads in Northern China. She learned that he was killed in the battle, but could remember the name ... "

God's Warriors

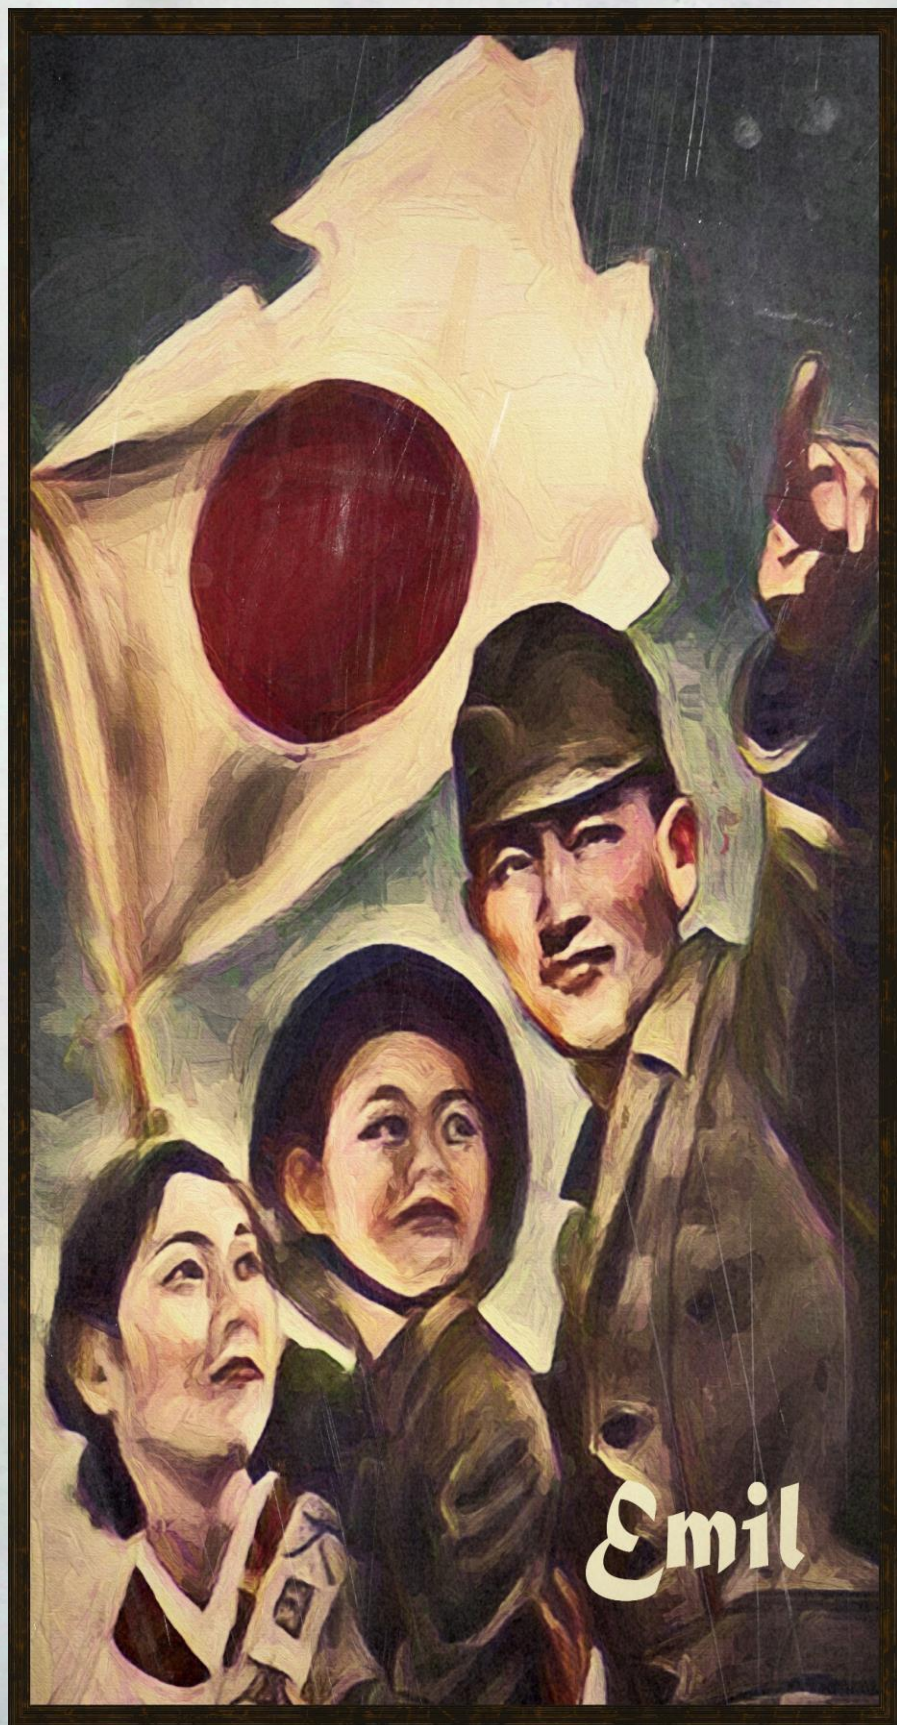

THERE IS STILL ANOTHER DAY!

Emil wrote that he could still remember the last words of the old man, and he tells us that they were almost lost, misplaced, and abandoned as a feverish dream of those who saw the future.

(End) I couldn't pay attention to his own council ... and was swept away by the very devil he preached to defeat desperately.

He said that what he most specifically remembered was the mysterious nature of the last time he came back to life ...

"WHAT USED TO BE IS GONE ..."

God's Warriors

SOLDIERS OF GOD

It was a rainy day, unusual for this part of China, especially in the middle of the dry season. It was a cool and gray day but rather like home. It has been a long time, out here, in the wilds of China but, as Soldiers of God...We must go on and as we are bringing unity, peace and harmony to our fellow Asian Peoples... I dare not curse myself (or our mission) by speculating as to when we shall be home..."

Emil

God's Warriors

The single greatest downfall of human kind as been our inability to let go of catchy slogans and hummable chants like the great old ditty from the last century that still tops the social charts regardless of even political leanings:

“MIGHT MAKE RIGHT”

Regardless that this mantra has served for the greatest plague of the 20th Century in that even the most humblest, the meekest of folks bought into its seductive powers and how it so easily became a gateway drug for any/all who desperately lusted for absolute power and its great success in being fed to its hundreds of millions of helpless victims as a simple, catchy phrase to justified the wrongs committed against them.

God's Warriors

Granted that it wasn't necessarily such a new thought but, its beauty was that it was far simpler than the long, drawn out arguments of the previous best seller about

"IT BEING GOD'S WILL!"

Who ever could be credited in having thought up and verbalized this for the first time...this person(s) should have large, mountain-size statues dedicated specifically to them.

Through the entire length of the 20th Century, nations and vast army committed to the industrialization of warfare, mass murder of any/all who by some random reason(s) disagreed with this new mantra.

The underlying reason that it so quickly caught on was that it removed God from the equation and

God's Warriors

after the mindless slaughter of the First War's Killing Fields this trended well with a war weary public who had grown cold to the belief that their sons and husbands had died terrible deaths because (somehow) God had endorse it all by the fact the kings and their political minions served at the desire of

THIS SAME GOD

One must wonder that this mantra is still a most powerful tool used now by our Political and Corporate Overlords to justify the New Social Reset here in the People's Republic of Amerika and how they have perfected and are using it like a surgeon wielding a blade to cut out our God-Given FREEDOM(s) as if it really was the deadly cancer.

God's Warriors

Our new Overlords have silenced any/all of those who would normally rise in challenge to the maelstrom of a New Cultural Revolution that they have unleashed upon the helpless public who now cower in their basements out of the fear(s) of

CAREER "CANCELMENT"

and/or a drastic reduction in their new

SOCIAL CREDIT SCORE(S).

They openingly and gleefully recount that they have the power because they have the "Army...F15s and Nuclear Weapons" along with a corrupt justice system where murders are released within mere hours of their evil deed(s) and how their enemies (political opposition or even any who merely disagrees with their policies) suffer "Jianyu Shenghuo" for Freedom of Speech.

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

Less than five years ago, back at the dawn of the Great Social Reset nobody understood and most had never heard of what is now commonly accepted as the "Rossgart Syndrome."

Back in those dark days of universal upheaval(s) not much thought had been given to the Sr. Rossgart and his research into (now called) the

EUGENICS POWER MATRIX

nor as to what dire effect that its implementation(s) might have upon humanity and its future. Sr. Matan Rossgart was not anyone's vision of a super villain and those who (personally) had known him spoke rather warmly of their occasions interactions with who they universally

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

proclaim was a mild-mannered, sleepy-eyed

PROFESSOR OF GENETICS RESEARCH

No one even in the scientific communities envisioned how his research and more so; those who adopted his cutting-edge research with genome and transcriptome sequencing of casper and roy Zebrafish Mutations genetical introduced into common virus through his

GAIN OF FUNCTION RESEARCH

His genomic causal mutations of this transparent phenotype research were poorly defined in the NIH's funding grants and it flew well under all normal regulatory safeguard in regards to risky (in many nation's) banned research well into its

God's Warriors

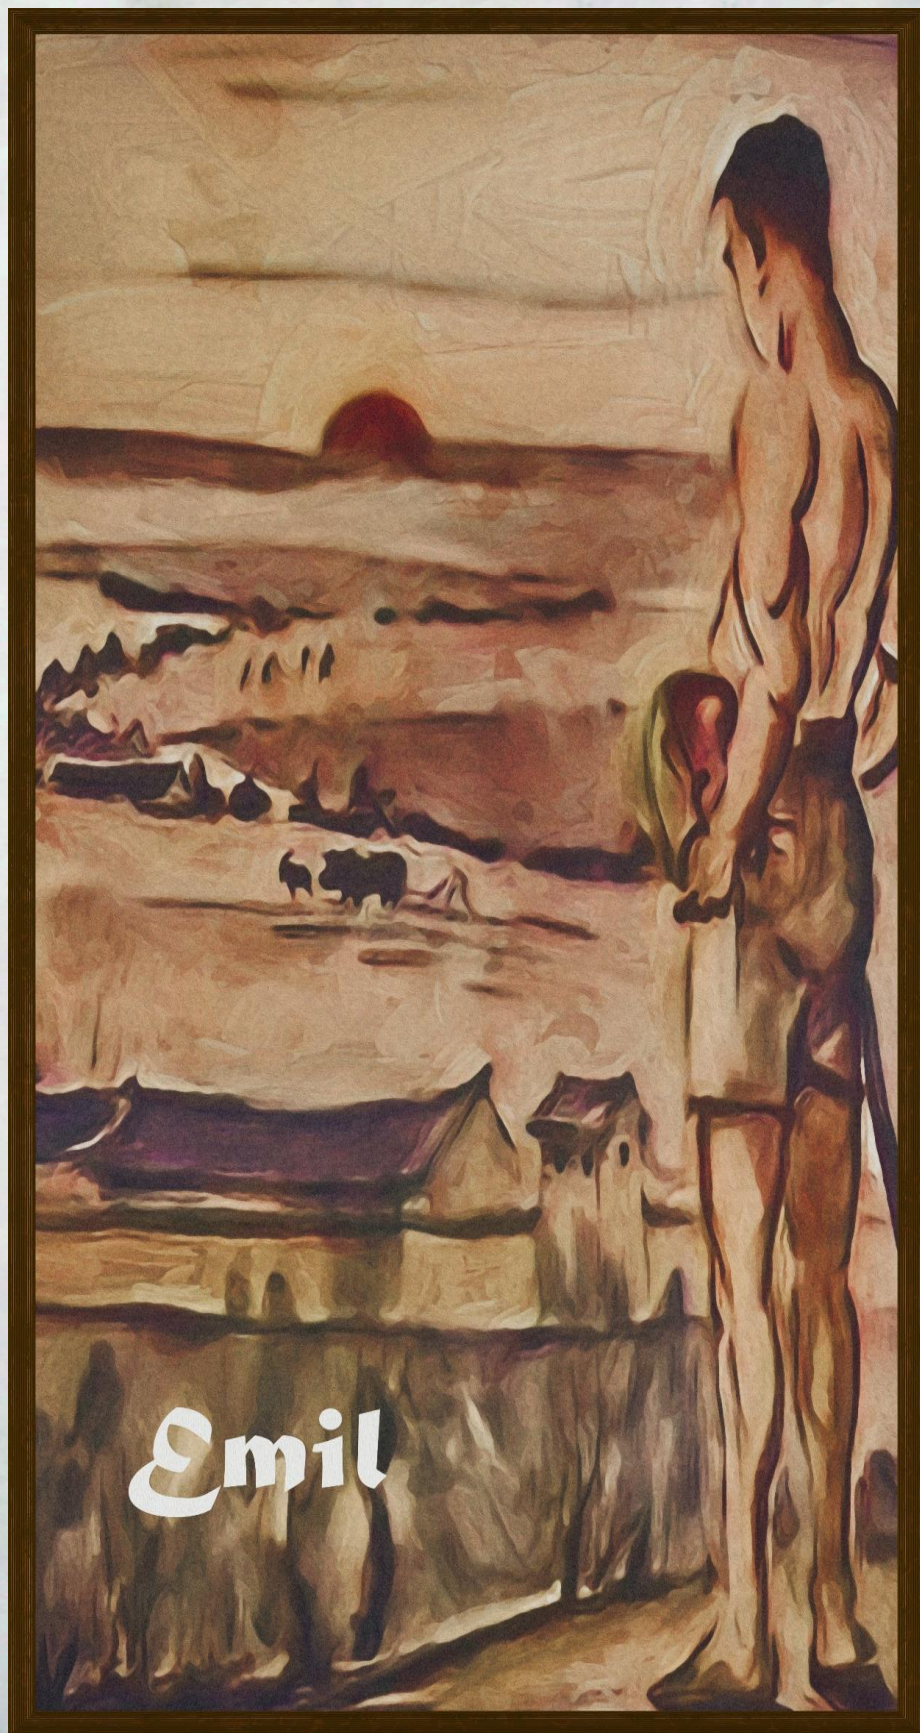

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

later years of Sr. Rossgart's studies and his development of his revolutionary formulized modeling of a rapidly developing, ahigh fecundity, and juvenile transparency virus into many already existing strains/varieties of

HUMAN GENETIC DISEASES

His creation(s) demonstrated many novel non-synonymous SNPs that result in residue changes or even inactivation of target genes.

He showed that these gain of function mutations potentially involved some dynamically disruptive and morphological changes to the very structure of an infected person's core DNA which would

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

become the primary core of the

EUGENICS POWER MATRIX

While few people even at this onset stage of this viral plague which the world now commandingly refers to as "The Rossgart Syndrome" that swept through an already weakened (by an endless wave of CCP created viruses) general, world population,

KILLING MOST INFECTED

in a most painful, Ebola-like death and bringing the economies of most (if not all) major western nation to a complete shutdown for the past two years; it has marched across continents and lain

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

most modern society(s) to waste of

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

At this point, there is too much loss to deal with the "ROOT" causes of how or why this evil plague initially started and there are so very left who have little time left as they are consumed in the (current) urgent need in the process or logistics/collecting and mandatory burning of

MILLIONS OF ROTTING CORPSES

that pollute nearly every major city in the western world. And...still what little remains of functioning government remains

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

in a total and complete denial

REGARDLESS OF THE EVIDENCE of their participation of Sr. Rossgart's research and even there deeper enfoldment into the

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

To the few (labeled as tin-foil hatters) now conclude that the most logical delivery system was from some state sponsored terrorist group(s) and that it was them that unleashed this plague upon the world as some form of an airborne attack.

While this would seem like the most logical and reassuring hypothesis but, in a recent CONVERSATION WITH DR. BROWN of USC Berkley's relocated Research Center in Eugene, Oregon; he cautions that we may need to entertain an alternative hypothesis of this virus'

CREATION AND LEAKAGE

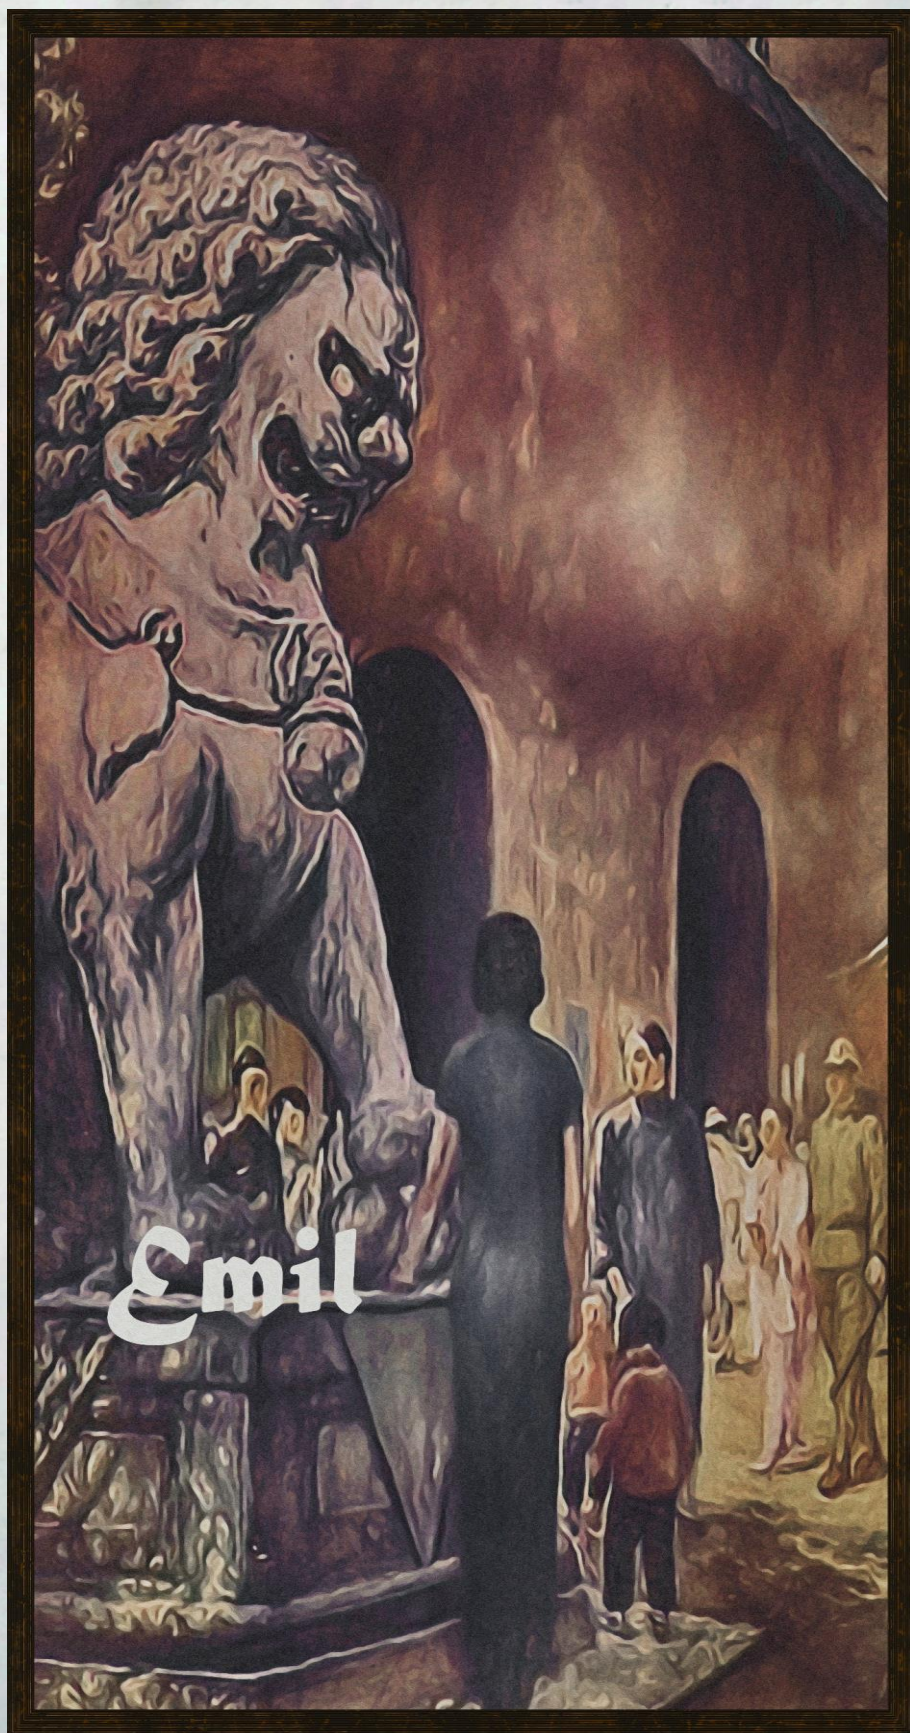

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

While noting that this was just his opinion(s) as (even here) we no longer possess the ability to trace or prove the origins of this plague or its current variants. Given all of his disclaimers, he noted the most common-sense explanation as to the reason(s) why this virus would have been "uncreatable" by any known or even, a collection of terrorist groups due to the massive influx of money that would have been needed to build a portable "Class 4" containment lab to manufacture this virus and thus, it had to be sponsored by

SOME NATION-STATE PLAYER(S)

Dr. Brown also noted that security/secretcy was

God's Warriors

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

also had been an issue in that this this type of facility would have been on every nation's security agency radar and thus, its creation and operation was surely

WELL DOCUMENTED

This lends itself to the common-sense question(s) as to who knew, what did they know, when did they know and what (if anything) they might have done to stop it and further to this point, if they

"KNEW OR TRIED TO STOP IT"

did that have any impact on its leakage?

God's Warriors

DEATH RATE OF 90+%

Emil

God's Warriors

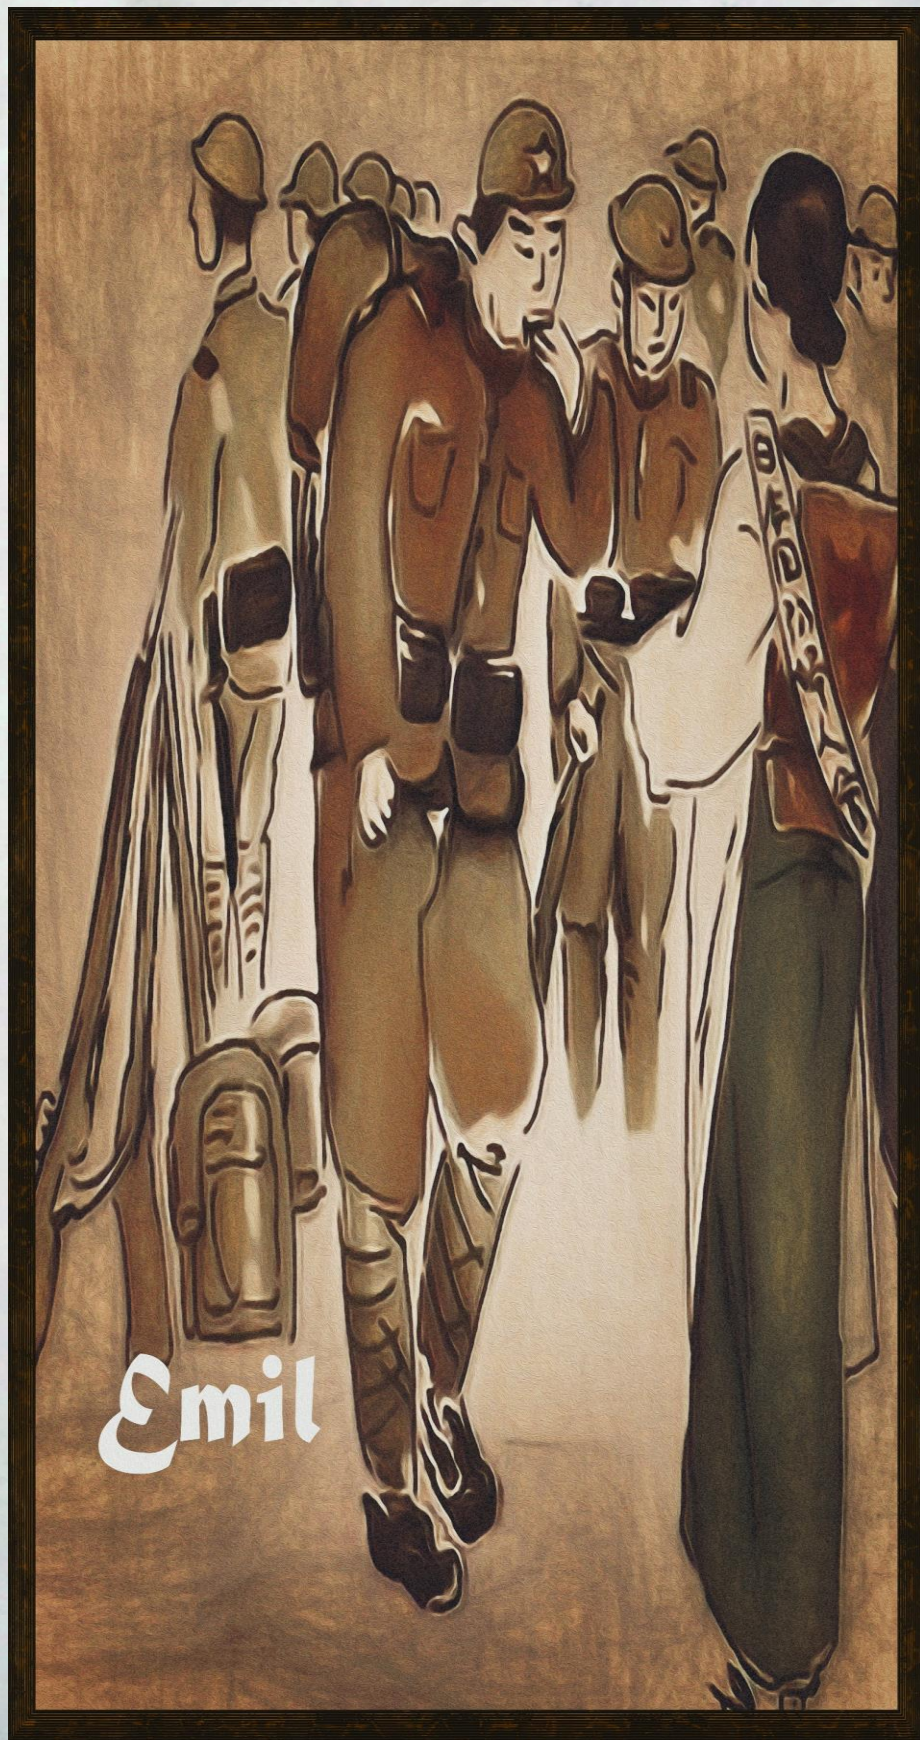

THE ROSSGART SYNDROME

There seems to be less than 10% of the world's population that seem to have a natural immunity by means of some functional CD4(+) T cells that (somehow, still not fully understood)

CREATE A NATURAL IMMUNITY

to this virus infection but, the particular CD4-dependent antibody as yet to be isolated close enough to attempt to replicate it to create an active vaccine and at present, Dr. Brown told me that the World's remaining Scientific Community lacks the resources or the logistics to track down those with immunity.

I asked Dr. Brown if there was any statistics on the rate of survival and if those people's blood could be used to produce a vaccine.

God's Warriors

He shook his down turned head and sad with a touch of what I could see

We may never recover enough to track all of these leads and bring those guilty of the Greatest Genocide against humanity since God destroyed Man 1.0 with biblical flood and replaced him with Man 2.0. LEAVING NANKING?

A lot of people filtering in and out of the city as the Nipponese Imperial Forces battle the

NATIONALIST IN SHANGHAI

Glad that I wasn't anywhere near the fighting. A lot of worried faces and still my patrons, the rich and educated elite from good families are oblivious to what is sitting on their door step. I saw that all too well back in the days, those of rotting away in rat and cockroach filled trenches where the only thing that keep us going were the professional league of rat racers.

God's Warriors

Emil

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

Damn! I did make a few dimes on those races. What else was there to do other than sitting in the black and red water, at the bottom of the trench, and wait to die. Not being a willing to invest all my time in endless prayer like the stupid kid from London?

GODLY MAN

Yea! That was the kid...

WHAT WAS HIS NAME?

Anyway, I remember that he had the goofy look on his face and had just finished telling me about

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

his dream where God told him that he would be alright and he was just starting to tell us that he knew from that he was gonna survive;
that's when the shell fragment ripped through his skill and his blood ruined my new and beautiful sweater that I had just got from Minnie...

YOU REMEMBER HER?

Man! What a gal!
Remember how, every time we came to Paris,
she would meet us at the train station...

WHAT A GAL!

God's Warriors

Emil

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

Anyway, that fool kid, his head shredded in middle sentence and that is what soured me on all this praying.

I figured that if I was going to survive, I needed to control and decide my own faith...not pray to some invisible deity that allowed me to be sent to this miserable place... sent me to die for things and people who never cared for me or me them.

All the mumble-jumble shit about

God, King and country...

Hell, I'm not even English...

AMERICAN...

Thank you!

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

Ever since then, I have survived based upon my wits, a little bit of abstract artsy, talent that these wealthy elitists here in Nanking are willing to pay for a portrait and mixed relations with old lady luck.

BUT, YOU KNOW?

I am getting that same old aching down in my bones, like back in 1917...you remember, we had been ordered to bayonets...we both knew that this was it...life expectance in "no man's land" was thirteen seconds.

Remember, I even let my prized racing rat go free while you confessed about you and my gal

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

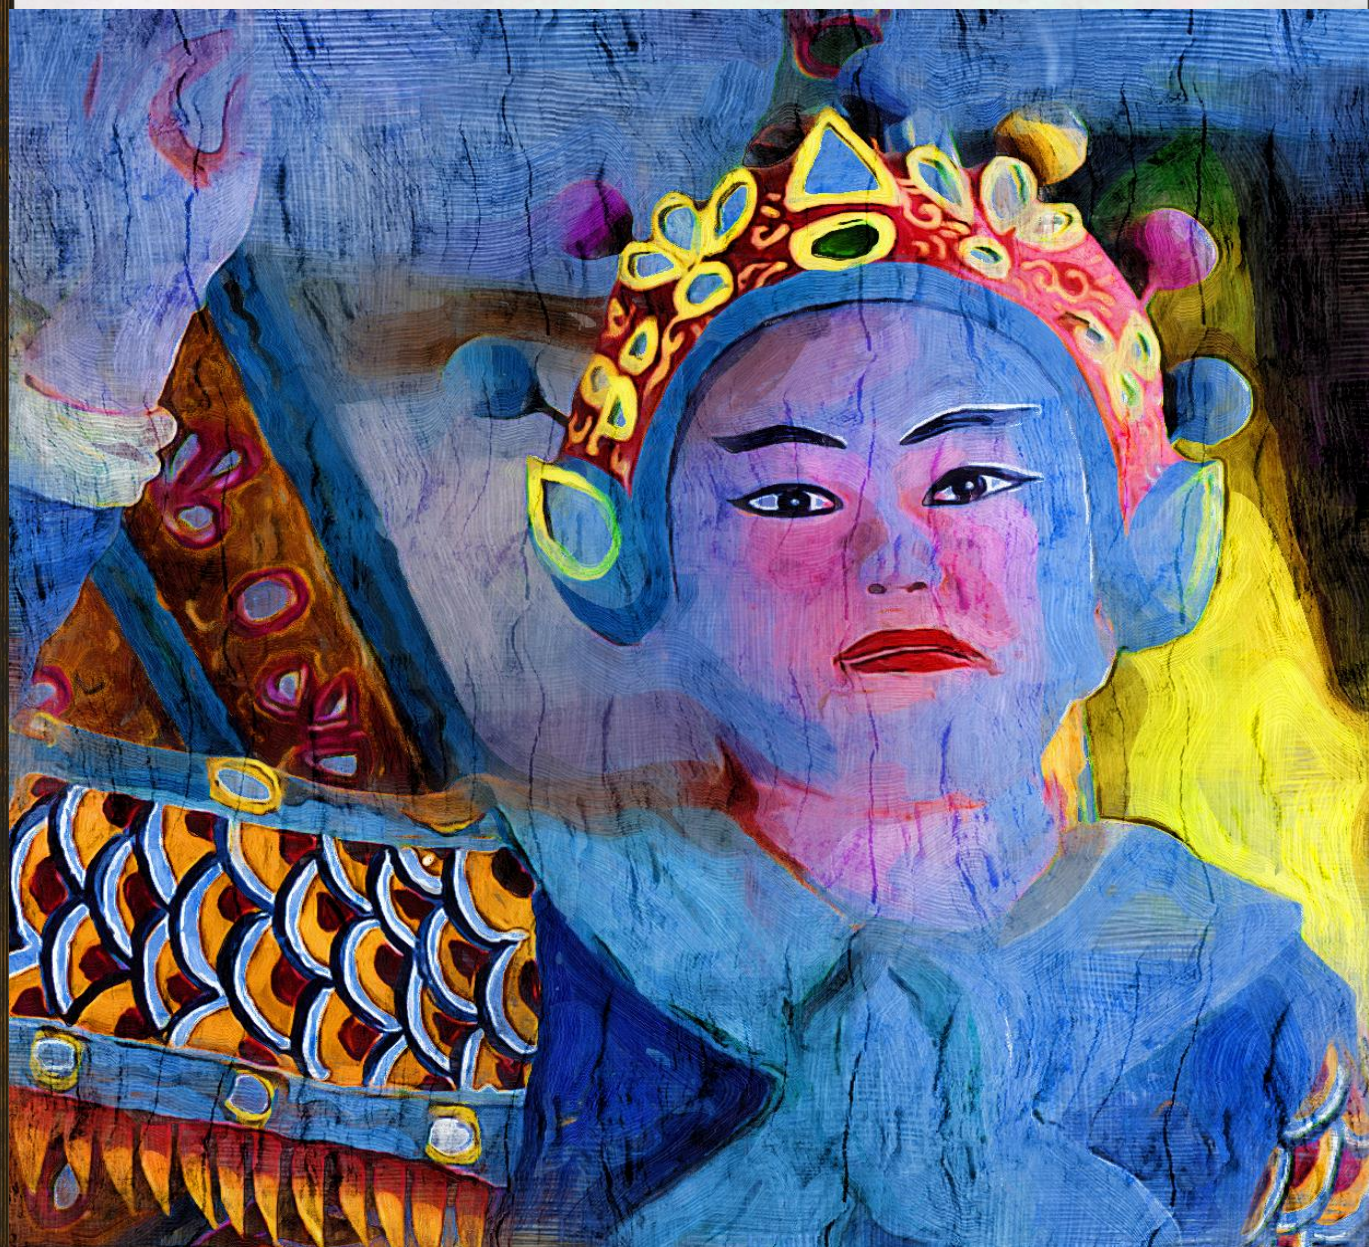

Minnie on that last trip to Paris?
Damn, I so wanted to kill you and for a few moments, I had it all planed out.
Then, the Captain took a round

TO THE HEAD

just as he sounded his stupid little whistle.
I saw that play out in extreme slow motion.
The puzzled look that idiotic officer had on his face I can still remember...he seemed puzzled and then confused as the whistle dropped from his lips and he started to crumble up and go

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

down...always did wonder what his

LAST THOUGHT WAS?

Did those elitist, the cream of English Gentry say
"Oh Shit!" like the common man or did they quote some fancy-dance poem or did they say

"FOR GOD, KING AND COUNTRY?"

Anyway, I sat down, took a deep breath mumbled something about how I still needed to kill you over Minnie but, mostly (remember) how I made a mad dash up the northern trench to find my race winning rat...gals will come and go but,
a real thoroughbred pedigree, racing rat don't

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

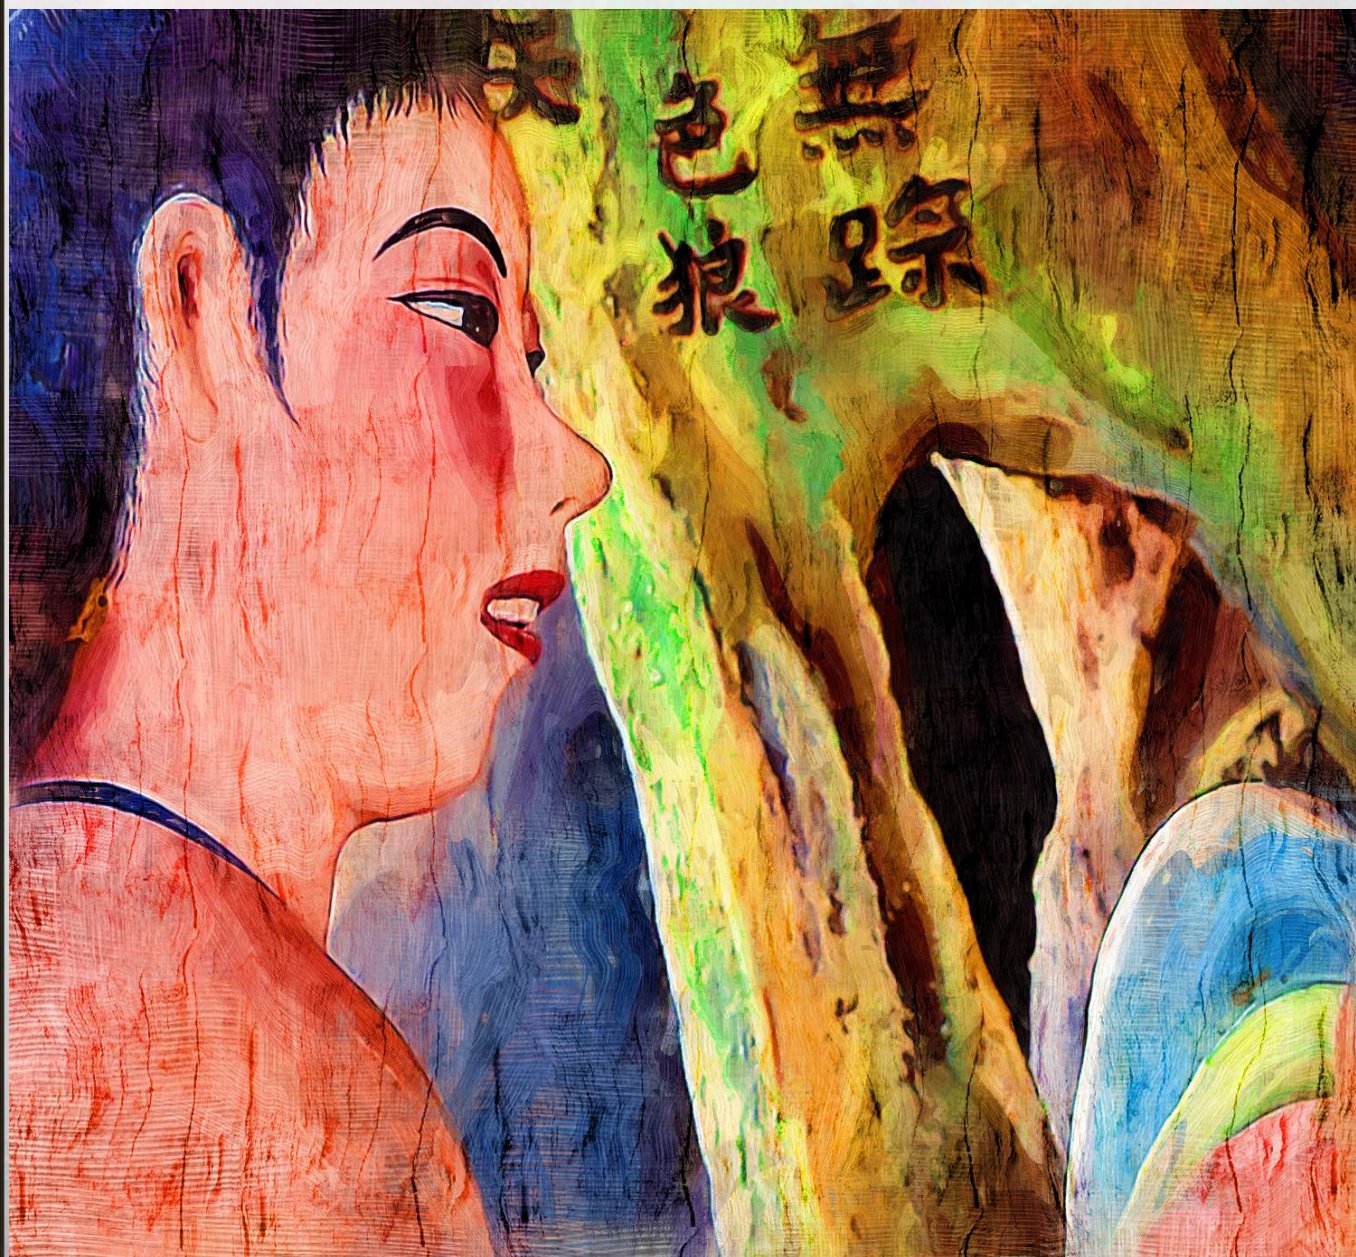

grow up in every trench here in Northern France...Man...those feeling got on my nerves

MAYBE, IT'S ME?

The old German Guy that haunts the club, the one here every night, chasing the young Chinese Flappers, he seems to think that we will be OK. He says that the Japanese have already chewed off more than they can chew down in Shanghai and that the Nationalist Troops are a real tough lot and he should know, he was here in the Boxer Rebellion Years...he told me a story about they (he was with the Expedition Forces back in those days) were over-run by those Boxers and how they just kept charging their machine guns with ancient swords and farm tools...

"Shit, we wouldn't have ever done that in our day..."

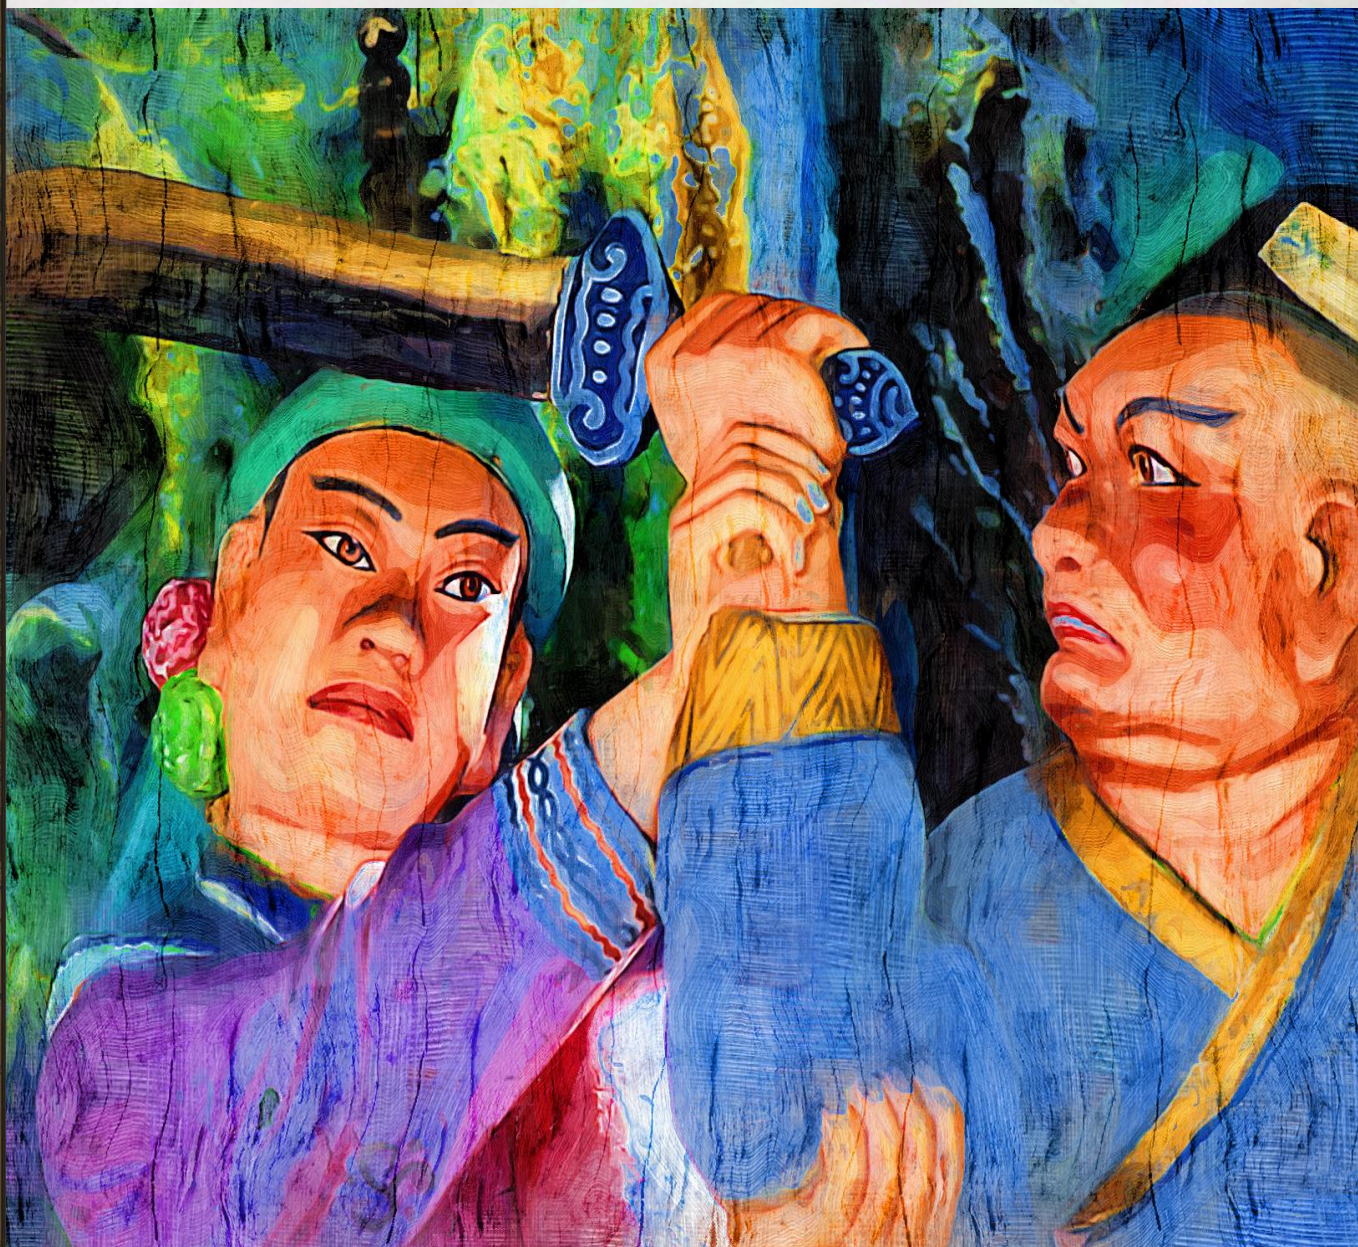

So, maybe this old German knows what he is saying. You know who I am talking about...

HE IS THE GUY

who said that he and his son where going to pull the plug and go back to Germany and raise rabbits and make a killing selling the fur to make linings for the pilot's jackets...

Yea! He said the Germans are building a state of the art air force...Betcha; we will be fighting him and yet another Generation of Huns again,

SOMEDAY SOON...

at least, from the sound of the newsreels at the movie theater last night.

That Hitler guy seems to be goofy?

Anyway...I been talking to Chiang...

NOT THE FIELD MARSHAL!

Yea...me and Madam Chiang were having tea

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

when the general popped in...
It's too early to be drinking, ain't it?
I was talking to...you know Chef Chiang

HERE AT THE CLUB

His cousin is/was well connected with the right people in the Nationalist Government and he tells me that we need to get out of town.
He also said that his cousin can get us a car and a driver to the

BURMESE FRONTIER

if we are willing to pay and if, we act real soon.

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

LEAVING NANKING?

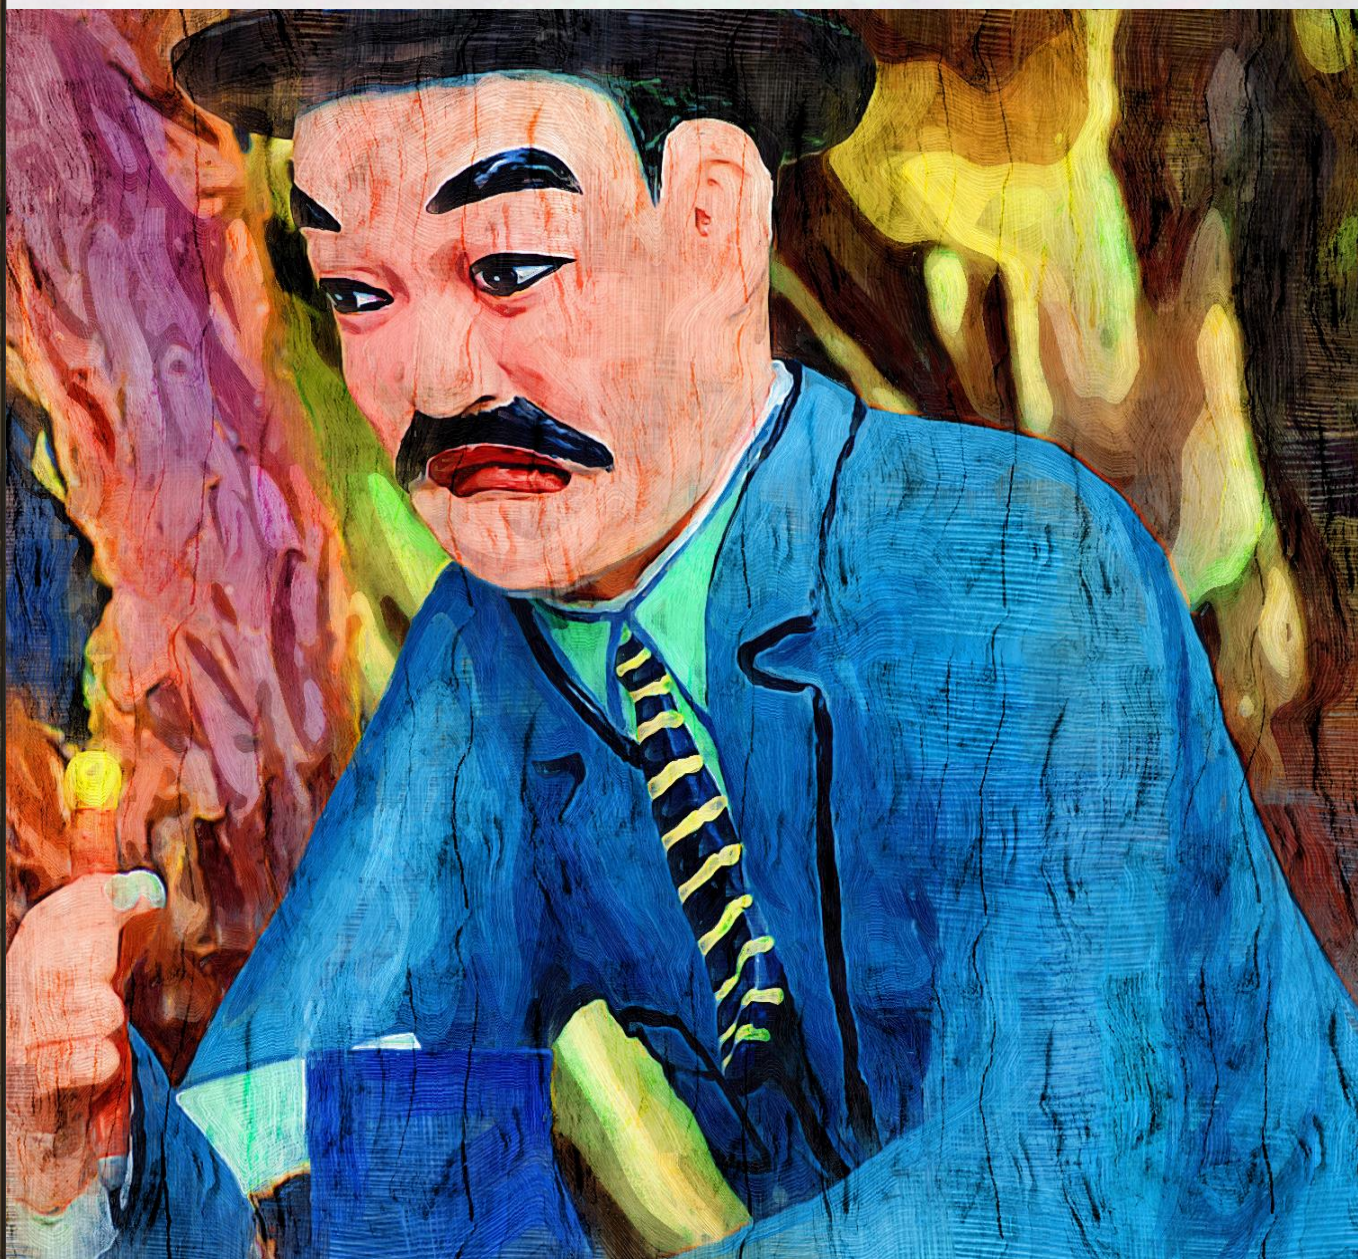

I got some money saved from these portraits and a bit from that nice English, Colonial-type woman...who...for some reason thought that I could introduce her to CEZANNE...

the artist...Where you born under a rock?!?
I never said that I personally knew him...I let people believe what they want to believe...especially, on their dime...
Anyway, she has been paying most of my bills for the past several months out of the generosity of

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

her husband's trust funds and I have

A LITTLE SAVINGS

I'm figuring that the Japanese...if they come...won't have much need for our likes but, I am worried that angry little japs with sharp sword, bad attitudes and repeating rifles don't seem to equal anything good for us.

WELL! LET ME KNOW...

Chef Chiang says he will hold the car for us till the end of the week...maybe...I think that it is time to go. Don't you?

UNDER NIPPONESE COMPULSION

Today, Japan's moral effusions concerning the New Order in East Asia and her digressions from Western patterns of international law in dealing with Manchukuo indicate that the Nipponese move freely, sincerely, and unconsciously in a frame of reference which, obvious to them,

IS INVISIBLE TO WESTERNERS

The Japan-Manchukuo Republic could really be aligned with the relationship similar to what Li Hung-Chang had envisioned and wished for, almost sixty years ago, to maintain in Korea a form of independence and which is now, significantly, similar the current desire to

God's Warriors

Emil

God's Warriors

maintain a sense of independent in Manchukuo Republic of today.

The Nipponese understand the position of juniority in international relations: to their intense humiliation, they confessed themselves China's junior during the

ASHIKAGA PERIOD

A third meaningful context for Nipponese practice is found in the basic, factual scheme of current international relations.

A third meaningful context for Nipponese practice is found in the basic, factual scheme of current international relations. No nation in an interdependent world is independent except by legal fiction; none could maintain its present without the existence of the others.

LEVEL OF CIVILIZATION

In these terms, legal independence fades as time passes, and cross-national power becomes more evident. Western imperialism was described by Sun Yat-Sen as reducing China to a hypo-colony. More recently, first the Communists and then the Nipponese have accused Chiang Kai-shek of being the puppet of imperialism, while

God's Warriors

God's Warriors

UNDER NIPPONESE COMPULSION

occasional Leftists regard Chiang as even now a puppet of Japan and a few citizens of imperialist states see him as a

COMMUNIST PUPPET

The Nipponese treat Roosevelt as a puppet for the International Banking Industry, while the present reactionary line attributes puppetry to the entire catalogue of world political institutions save those made quickly by its own infallibility.
The fundamental point of such appraisal depends upon the attribution of power relationships.
Dependence is indisputable only if one government functions within the military framework of another, or if the personnel of the subordinate is drawn from the superior, or if clear and immediate causal relationships can be proved between the continued fiscal or military action of the sustaining government and the actual existence of the sustained government—although even this last leads

TO SUBJECTIVE INTERPRETATION

The term "puppet" is not truly clear or apt, except in its most concrete sense—that of a person who is almost literally a marionette, whose utterances public and private are not his own, whose actions are supervised, and whose personal choice or opinion is not merely thwarted, but left out of consideration.

Not all the Chinese who work with Japan are

VENTRILOQUISTS' DUMMIES

Having spent this past month, talked, freely, with men who staked their careers on the inescapable success of the Nipponese military, and who functioned in absolute conformity to general limits of policy and publicity laid down by the Nipponese; these general limits were wide enough to permit a considerable degree of latitude of manners, and to allow variance in power and policy between the various

CHINESE UNDER JAPAN

Use of the term "puppet" in such cases

IS NOT CLEAR

It implies a higher degree of effective Nipponese control, and a greater pliability of Chinese cooperators, than can be shown to exist.

Since, however, the National Government is recognized, both by the majority of the Chinese people and by all powers with the exception of Japan, to be the legitimate government of China, representing the Chinese nation, action against that government may properly and strictly be

DENOMINATED TREASON

And if such a person so acting may be called, formally, a traitor and, less formally but more descriptively, a Japanophile.

Juridical the Chinese Communist Leaders were also traitors, but they were

NEVER JAPANOPHILE
